

Malta Trade Mission 6-16th October 2005 Expression of Interest

The Australian Maltese Chamber of Commerce is planning a trade mission to Malta in the first / second week of October 2005. The dates are 6th to 16th of October 2005. The mission is open to all members, business partners, associates, and exporter/importers in all industry sectors that may be accessing this market for the first time with a possibility in making contacts to do business in both North Africa and Europe as well as Malta. With Malta now a member of the European Union, this may create the best opportunity for new markets.

The estimated cost on this mission flying economy class per head is approx: $5500 for members, and $6000 for non-members.

Business and First class travel is available upon request.

Travel itinerary is at this moment being finalised and will be advised shortly.

Also included in the cost are the accommodation and all administration costs, meetings, transfers and assistance during your stay in Malta.
